The Friend Of God | Sermon Outlines

ABRAHAM was called the Friend of God because he was so. The title only declares a fact. The Father of the faithful was beyond all men "the Friend of God," and the head of that chosen race of believers whom Jesus calls his friends. The name is rightly given.

The Spurgeon Library | The Friend of God

God spoke to Ananias, and to Barnabas, and asked them to be a friend to a man who desperately needed them. And the world was changed. God works in simple ways. Somewhere, perhaps today, a person near you needs a faithful friend. If you answer God's call to be that friend, it might be you who changes the world.

Sermon - The Power of a Faithful Friend

First, true friends of Jesus will obey Him. Jesus said, "You are My friends if you do whatever I command you" (John 15:14). If you are not obeying Him, then you have no right to claim that you are His friend. God is looking for consistency and regularity in your life.

How to Be God's Friend - A New Beginning with Greg Laurie

God gave Abraham the desire of his heart. God gave him a child from his wife Sarah in their old age. Then God asked of Abraham the unthinkable, Gen 22:2 2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

Friends of God - Faithlife Sermons

Abraham is more than just the Lord's servant. He is also God's friend. Friendship with God is not a privilege just for Abraham; it belongs to all who follow Jesus (John 15:12-17). If we trust in Christ, we are His friends and can know His thoughts more deeply the longer we walk with Him.
